Benefit From

unbiased feedback from other business owners and leaders, cutting edge techniques, concepts and speakers. In addition, business partners will serve as each other's board of directors by testing their assumptions and holding each other accountable for turning ideas into great results.

I have found that I get at least one good idea from every meeting that I can immediately take back to my business and implement. This is my second term and I have made back my investment tenfold. I find myself really looking forward to each meeting. The facilitators and speakers are by far the best I have ever experienced. They keep the information relevant and hold the team accountable for the results. Terry Bauer, The Beale Street Cafe
